RECENT REVIEWS

I have to write you this message before we check out. The SilverLand Inn and Suites is the most amazing establishment. It is more than the facilities, which are excellent. It is the spirit of the staff and management that blesses those who have the privilege of staying in Virginia City.

My great grandson and I came here, without planning, for an overnight stay. It has been a very special time for us. The short drive from Fallon took us into a wonderful retreat.

I can guarantee that we will be back. Please thank all the management and staff for us. You are part of something greater and deeper than working and operating an Inn. – Bryan Cuthill
